TORN TO PIECES.

A Chicago Anarchist Floats a Red Flag From His Window.

HE GETS EXCITED AND REVILES THE STARS AND STRIPES.

This is Too Much for Loyal Americans to Stand—in a Few Minutes the Unsightly Emblem is Forcibly Removed and Torn Into Fragments—The "Red" Narrowly Escapes Being Lynched.

CHICAGO, May 2.—One of the exciting incidents of Tuesday was witnessed by about 500 persons, who had assembled in front of the headquarters of fire engine company No. 17, at 80 West Lake street. Capt. E. Anderson and a dozen members of the company were at work decorating the front of the building.

Suddenly a man thrust his head from a window of the fourth story of the building east of the engine house, and after noting the work of decoration announced himself as an Anarchist. He reviled the stars and stripes and the decorators in the most insulting manner. Little attention was paid to the man, however, until he floated the red rag of anarchy from the window, announcing it as "my flag, my colors." Then the crowd became excited and angry and loud calls were heard.

"Tear down that rag or you will be sorry you ever floated it," was cried to him from 100 throats.

Seeing that the crowd was in a bad humor, and that several men had offered to climb up the fire-escape on the front of the building and tear the rag down, the man secured an ax, and taking a position in the window, declared he would kill any man who touched his "flag."

The crowd was almost frenzied and constantly grew larger. Half a dozen men exhibited revolvers and offered to drive the wretch from his position in the window long enough to tear the Anarchist colors down.

While the debate was in progress as to the best thing to be done, Capt. Anderson appeared on the roof of the building with a rope in his hand, to the end of which was attached an iron hook. He lowered the hook until it came beneath the staff of the red rag and then, with a sudden jerk upward, dislodged the unsightly banner. It fell to the sidewalk, and a moment later had been torn into a hundred fragments.

A moment later the man emerged from the stairway and came out upon the sidewalk. He was seized by a dozen men and someone cried out "Get a rope; let's hang the Anarchist dog." Several men rushed into the engine house and returned with a rope. In the meantime the man had been knocked down or tripped up half a dozen times, and blood was trickling from a wound under his left eye.

About the time the men returned with the rope a police officer, who had been sent from the Desplains street station to see what the trouble was, appeared on the scene and advised the crowd to desist. The man, whose name is M. W. Doty, was finally released and allowed to go upstairs.

SIXTEEN STOWAWAYS.

They Tell a Pitiful Tale of Cruelty and Suffering while at Sea.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The tramp steamer Stovas arrived from Liverpool yesterday with sixteen stowaways—all with one exception under 20, on board. They told a pitiful tale. According to their story, boys as they were, they were forced to work in the hatch-hole from ten to fourteen hours a day. When they refused or were unable, from exhaustion to work so long they were lashed to the rigging where they were drenched with the waves. They were also handcuffed besides being kicked about and beaten. But three biscuits a day and a little water were given them to subsist upon, and their sleeping place was on the grating over the boilers, the boys appearance bears out their story.

Their explanation of how they come to be stowaways is the queerest part of their narrative. They say that a lad who declared that he had been a stowaway on the Stovas, with the result that he had journeyed for nothing from New York to Liverpool, while the captain gave him a considerable sum of money when he left the ship, persuaded them to accompany him on his return trip. When they boarded the steamer.

Chief Officer Vincent, of the Stovas, when asked if what the boy said was true, did not take the trouble to acknowledge or deny it. "You may believe them or not, as you please," was practically his answer. The boys are now in charge of the customs officers pending investigation.

Peddlarily Sad Accident.

PATERSON, N. J., May 2.—James Legg and another young man, with two female friends, set out to row up the Passaic river from above the falls to Laurel Grove cemetery, where Legg wished to place flowers on his brother's grave. Owing to recent heavy rains the river is very high, and the young women expressed fears that the current was too strong to row against. Legg said he could do it, and jumped into the boat. He pushed off and the little craft was almost immediately caught by the current and swept toward the dam just above the falls. Legg jumped from the boat and was borne by the current over the falls, plunging eighty feet into the water below. The boat was caught by an eddy above the dam and drifted ashore. Legg's body was not recovered.

The Hawes Trial.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 2.—Robert D. Thompson, an ex-railroad detective and alleged paramour of Mrs. Hawes, was the important witness against Dick Hawes in the trial Tuesday. He said he was in Thomasville, Ga., when the murder occurred. His alibi took away another point that Hawes had relied upon.

Two Thousand Saloons Closed.

BOSTON, May 2.—At 11 o'clock Tuesday night 2,000 saloons closed their doors permanently. The law limits the saloons to one for every 500 inhabitants.

DISGRACEFUL.

The Wind-Up of the Centennial—Notes of the Celebration.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Both The Herald and Sun assert that the closing scenes of the inaugural ball at the Metropolitan opera house Tuesday morning were disgraceful. After 1 o'clock in the morning wine flowed in great abundance, and many intoxicated men and some few disreputable women were carousing in the supper room and on the dancing floor.

Many irresponsible persons without tickets are said to have been admitted by the doorkeepers. The crowd became so great and boisterous that dancing was out of the question, and the respectable people present made haste to quit the building. Great delay was experienced in getting hats and wraps from the cloak-rooms, in some cases parties being compelled to wait over an hour before they could secure articles of apparel which had been left in those rooms.

Many of the waiters in the supper room are also said to have become intoxicated and added to the blackguardism going on around them. Matters finally became so bad that the police were called upon to clear the supper room, which they were able to do only by the free use of their clubs. The hilarity was kept up until shortly after 4 o'clock, when the police were instructed to clear the house.

Sad Features of the Celebration.

Among the sad features of the great celebration the following were reported Tuesday night:

Theresa Renner, aged 37, died of heart disease at Madison square while watching the parade.

Several men and women were crushed and injured by a charge of the mounted police at Fifth avenue and Fifty-seventh street in a vain attempt to clear the avenue to Fifty-ninth street. It was finally decided not to carry out the order, and the paraders were dismissed at Fifty-seventh street passed down that street east and west and dispersed. The crowd at this point is said by the police to have been denser than at any other place.

Lieut. Col. Granville Gaines, of the Third Virginia, was thrown from his horse and sustained a fracture of the left leg.

Capt. F. A. Gay, of the Clinton, N. Y., artillery, fell from his horse and his right arm was fractured.

Mr. Taylor, of Keyport, N. J., fell from a Third avenue car and fractured his skull.

Second Lieut. William A. McDonald, of the First Ohio artillery, was caught under his falling horse and crushed. His injuries are not thought to be serious, but disabled him for the day.

Miss Lizzie Schultz, of 854 First avenue, was taken ill on the Union square stand and died in the hospital of heart disease.

A drunken man was picked up by the police at Grant street and Bowery and $1.07 was found in his pocket. He was too drunk to give his name, and was locked up.

David Williams fell from the stoop of 323 Fifth avenue and fractured a leg.

William Lukenter, aged 25, a stableman, was found dead this evening in front of his home, 244 East Sixty-seventh street, with marks of violence on his person. The police think he was murdered.

Several women fainted or fell in fits, and the ambulances of the various hospitals were constantly in requisition.

"McSwyny's Four Hundred."

"McSwyny's Four Hundred" held their centennial banquet at Delmonico's Tuesday night. Toasts were responded to by Mayor Cleveland, of Jersey City; Mayor Gleason, of Long Island City; Bishop Farwell, of Trenton; Col. John O'Kierne, Judge McAdam, Hon. John E. Fitzgerald, Judge Lehrbas, Rhineland Dillon, Amos Cummings and others.

Thieves Arrested.

Thirty-two thieves were arrested during the military parade while engaged in plying their nefarious vocation. They comprise pretty nearly all the remnant of their class which had escaped Inspector Byrnes' drag net previous to the centennial.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Depere, Wisconsin, Has a $100,000 Fire Losses Elsewhere.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 2.—Fire at Depere Tuesday night destroyed a dozen buildings in the business center, causing a loss of about $60,000. It broke out in Winegard & Person's general store, which had been closed, owing to the celebration.

Thence it spread rapidly to adjoining buildings and Green Bay was telegraphed for aid. The fire was under control at 8 o'clock. The Winegard and Peterson's buildings were totally destroyed. Loss $40,000 and insurance $25,000. The Transit house also burned to the ground, involving a loss of $11,000, insurance $6,000. The opera house was damaged to some extent.

Charcoal Blast Furnace.

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—A special from Chambersburg, Pa., says: The new charcoal blast furnace of the Mont Alto Iron company at Mont Alto was totally destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. The furnace was entirely new, and had been put into operation only two weeks. There is no insurance. Over 200 men will be thrown out of employment.

CHICAGO, May 2.—The Windsor theatre, located on the north side of the river caught fire shortly after midnight Tuesday night, and in less than twenty minutes was completely destroyed. Three firemen were injured by a falling wall, one of them seriously. Loss $50,000.

The Standard Octopus.

FINDLAY, O., May 2.—The Standard Oil company made a deal Tuesday morning that has scared Findlay as badly as the approach of the cyclone. The great monopoly bought the monster Mellott gas well, which is almost within the city limits and is considered the biggest gas well in Ohio, if not in the world, right from under the noses of the Findlay gas trustees and the gas board of Toledo, both of whom were negotiating for its purchase. The Standard paid $25,000 cash for the well and $8 per acre per annum for 660 acres of gas territory surrounding the well. This gives the Standard a hold on the Findlay gas field for which it has long been scheming, and it is feared this wonderful territory will soon be at the mercy of the giant octopus.

A SAD ENDING

Of the Washington Centennial Celebration in Chicago.

A PREMATURE EXPLOSION OF FIREWORKS CAUSES A PANIC.

The Mob Becomes Uncontrollable and Women and Children Are Thrown Down and Trampled Under Foot—A Runaway Horse Adds to the Confusion—Several Deaths Will Probably Result.

CHICAGO, May 2.—A series of distressing accidents occurred on the lake front shortly after 9 o'clock Tuesday evening, just as the festivities celebrating the centennial of Washington's inauguration were closing, which marred the joyous proceedings of the entire day. Five persons were fatally injured in the crush of people, and a score or more received wounds of a serious nature. But few of the names of those injured could be learned owing to the fact that the majority of them were cared for by their friends and taken to their homes.

The first accident was caused by a premature explosion of some fireworks. An unknown lady was severely burned about the lower limbs. She was removed to her home before her name could be learned.

While endeavoring to extinguish the flames consuming the lady's clothing August Schultz, a barber, 19 years of age, was seriously burned about the face and hands.

Fred Eberberg, 13 years of age, was terribly burned about the face and hands. He was taken to the hospital, and will probably die.

John Hanlihan, 17 years of age, was badly burned about the limbs and body. He jumped into the lake to extinguish the fast consuming fire, and was rescued and taken to the hospital.

Daniel Grant, a 13-year-old boy, was fully burned all over the body by the premature explosion of a fire pot. The poor little fellow had also inhaled a quantity of flames and hot air, his mouth and throat being completely cooked. He was taken to his home. His recovery is impossible.

On Michigan Avenue.

While this was going on a scene still more terrible was being enacted on Michigan avenue, near Harrison street. The crush at this point was simply fearful. Strong men were picked up and carried bodily along, while women and children were knocked down and trampled upon. To add to the confusion, a horse attached to a buggy started down the street at a rapid pace, spreading terror and dismay everywhere. The police did all in their power to check the fearful rush, but were unable to cope with the frightened, maddened throng. When order was partially restored it was found that several persons were seriously and some fatally injured.

The more seriously injured were: Miss Kittie Conway, terribly trampled, will probably die.

Mrs. George F. Faver, overcome with heart disease and terribly bruised by being trampled upon; recovery doubtful.

Miss Lizzie Howard, knocked down and bruised by runaway horse.

Mrs. F. E. Brady, overcome by heart disease, badly crushed; result doubtful.

Mrs. Crowley, knocked down and trampled upon; seriously injured.

Mrs. Mary Schubert and Lena Schubert, trampled and seriously injured.

Unknown man badly crushed and leg broken; unconscious.

Unknown boy frightfully burned by explosion of powder.

Unknown man, badly bruised; unconscious.

It is estimated that fully a score of persons besides those mentioned received injuries of a slight nature, but were cared for and taken home by their friends. Eye witnesses to the exciting scenes say that the crush and stampede was fearful, and the only wonder is that many persons were not killed outright.

At Lincoln Park.

When the last rocket had exploded at Lincoln park the people made a wild rush for every street leading from the south end of the park. The crowd at Charles street and North avenue became so dense that the police found it impossible to handle them.

The wooden sidewalk at the northwest corner gave way and several hundred persons fell five or six feet. In the scramble to get away women and children were trampled and many painfully injured.

The crowd surged across the street and broke down the other sidewalk. The Larabee street patrol cleared the streets and helped the injured home.

Among those hurt were: Max Rohrer, head cut.

T. C. Somsen, foot badly crushed.

F. Dipple and wife, badly bruised.

James Spalocy, a little boy 8 years old, was thrown under the sidewalk and not found for an hour after.

Johnny Granahan and Eddie Helches, both small boys, were badly bruised.

Presents a Wrecked Appearance.

Michigan avenue, along the Lake park, presented a rather wrecked appearance after its rough experience with the mass of 100,000 people. Men, women, children, and even babies in arms were tossed about like a wild current, and the fences and shrubbery that came in the way were swept away and crushed under foot.

Only the iron fences escaped, but even these strong barriers were bent by the mighty pressure. But the iron did not protect the flower-beds and shrubbery. To escape the dreadful rush men had jumped over these fences, women had been dragged over, children had been tossed over, and all the things in the yard were trampled under foot and destroyed.

As far as can be learned about 100 people were injured, but no deaths have yet been reported. Those who were the most seriously injured were the three boys who were taken to the county hospital, and it is now thought they will recover.

Quick Conviction at Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., May 2.—Sunday night a horse and saddle belonging to Thomas Kennedy were stolen from the hitching-rack at Brookston. The officers here were telegraphed, and during the afternoon found the horse at a livery stable. About 2 o'clock Thomas Lane was arrested for stealing the horse, at half-past 2 o'clock he was before Judge Langdon, and at a quarter of 3 o'clock he had been sentenced to three years' imprisonment, to pay $300 fine and disfranchised for four years.

A BIG STRIKE.

Fully Five Thousand Men Out in Alleghany County, Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—Building operations throughout Alleghany county are paralyzed. It is estimated that fully 5,000 union men are out on a strike. The strike extends to carpenters and joiners, stone-masons and hod-carriers, and as a result of the strike in these trades, brick-layers and the other building trades are, in many places, at a standstill.

The strikers are members of the United Building Trades union and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. The last named organization works in conjunction with the first.

The strike, in brief, is inaugurated against the employment of non-union labor, and, by some of the trades, for advance in pay.

The carpenters' strike was mainly against non-union workmen, but at the same time they want a uniform minimum rate of $2.50 per day. The stone-masons want an advance from $2.00 to $3, and the hod-carriers ask for an advance of twenty-five cents per day—from $2.25 to $2.50.

Work in all districts of Pittsburgh, Alleghany, East End, South Side and the suburban towns is at a standstill. The builders have decided to use every means to defeat the strike.

Cut in Mining Prices.

NEW YORK, May 2.—A Tribune special from Brazil, Ind., says the greatest cut ever made in the price of coal mining in the west was made Tuesday. It was from ninety cents to seventy cents on Indiana block, and from seventy-five to sixty cents on Indiana bituminous coal.

Two years ago the Indiana miners and operators, jointly with the Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana miners, fixed upon a yearly scale for mining. Because of natural gas Ohio and Pennsylvania were given as a rate respectively sixty and sixty-nine cents. The Indiana rate was fixed at eighty cents, and this scale was renewed a year ago.

Coal Mines Shut Down.

NEW YORK, May 2.—A special to The World from Spring Valley, Ill., says: The Spring Valley Coal company, which is controlled by W. L. Scott, of Pennsylvania, closed down its mines here Tuesday, pending an agreement of prices for the ensuing year. About 2,000 men are thrown out of work. The miners are in poor shape to stand a lockout.

BLAINE'S ILLNESS.

His Secretary Says It's Not Paralysis—He Refuses to See Anyone.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Mr. Blaine left positive orders that he would see no one, and would not even receive cards. The clerk at the Normandy refused to send up a note from a United Press reporter, asking for information concerning the rumor that Mr. Blaine was suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Sherman, his private secretary, who came down from Mr. Blaine's room just then, said there was no truth in the report. "You can make the denial positive" he said, "there is nothing whatever in the story. It is a canard."

AT THE SCENE OF THE WRECK.

Some of the Victims Identified by Trinkets Taken From the Ruins.

HAMILTON, Ont., May 2.—Another body has been taken out of the wreck on the Grand Trunk road burned beyond recognition. Relatives and friends of missing persons are endeavoring to identify watches and other trinkets found in the ruins, with the following result: A silver shield, with name R. O. Paterly, New York; a gold watch, with name Morgan Russell Scullen, Chicago; silver watch, with monogram "M. O. M." inside; a sword, with name C. B. Winslow on blade; a watch chain was identified as belonging to O. J. Frazer, of Omaha; a watch marked "C. I. S." was identified by George Gruernar, of Chicago, as belonging to his wife. One body was partially recognized as that of David Booth, of Toronto; another was identified as that of J. S. Hall, of Kankakee. Thomas Curnick, of Chicago, identified a silver shield as belonging to his father, J. G. Curnick, of Chicago. George McKenzie, of Chicago, recognized a watch and pin as belonging to his sister and aunt, both of Chicago.

Five doctors have examined the burned bodies, and concluded that seven were men, four women and two children. The others are so badly charred it is impossible to tell the sex.

A Pennsylvania Family Tragedy.

SOMERSET, Pa., May 2.—Jacob J. Shoules, the wealthiest farmer in the county, recently married a young wife much to the displeasure of his two sons, Daniel and George, as they did not relish the prospects of any more heirs to participate in the division of their father's estate. Tuesday morning, neighbors discovered the body of the old gentleman hanging from the limb of a tree in the woods, near his barn. His young wife who would shortly become a mother was returning to the house from milking the cows, when she heard the crack of a rifle and fell to the ground, a rifle ball having pierced her left side. A physician and detective were summoned. An investigation resulted in the arrest of the two sons, who were given a hearing and committed on the charge of murdering their father and attempting the life of their step-mother. Mrs. Shoule's condition is extremely critical.

Boiler Explosion—One Killed.

VAN WERT, O., May 2.—At 8 o'clock Tuesday morning the boiler in the tile factory of W. D. Krick, three miles from Shanes Crossing, and south of here, exploded with terrific force, demolishing the building and killing Engineer Irving Meyers. A man named Priddy was fatally injured, while D. Krick, John Painter, John Hartzog and two others were more or less hurt. The mill is a total wreck. Pieces of the boiler were blown 300 yards.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY.
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1889.

ONE of the best and wisest Democrats of the country passed away when Hon. William H. Barnum died.

The recent county conventions settled the question of State Treasurer Sharp's nomination for re-election. He will have a walkover the 8th of May, and will down any and all opponents next August.

So far as heard from the Democrats of Scott County are the only ones who have failed to endorse State Treasurer Sharp for re-election. The resolution was defeated by a majority of one. What's the trouble between Sharp and the Scott County Democrats?

MAJOR BURCHETT, U. S. Marshal for this district, has informed the Louisville papers that he will not appoint any colored deputies. He is reported as saying "it would be dangerous to do so." If the Major had expressed such sentiments to the colored voters of this district last fall, his defeat would have been more overwhelming than it was.

The question of adopting standard, or railroad, time introduced at the last meeting of council may be brought up again to-night. If it should be, it is to be hoped the members will vote it down. There is nothing to be gained by the proposed change. On the contrary it would put every owner of a watch or clock in the city to considerable trouble and inconvenience. Many cities where the change has been tried are abandoning it and returning to "sun time." Let well enough alone.

The entries for the stake races in the bluegrass circuit of fairs and trots closed on the 20th of April. The circuit embraces Harrodsburg, Danville, Paris, Sharpsburg, Lexington, Maysville, Shelbyville and Eminence. The meetings begin at Harrodsburg on July 30th, and close at Eminence, September 17th. The entries for the stakes to be trotted here at the coming fair is published elsewhere. The list is a long one and embraces many of the most promising youngsters in the country. No association in Kentucky can make a better showing in this respect than the Maysville Fair Company. The fair always attracts tremendous crowds and the business men of the city should encourage the members of the company in every manner possible.

ABERDEEN.

"No" is the way the school election went. Mrs. Lee Arthur, of Ironton, is here on a visit to relatives.

Tab McDaniel is here from Cincinnati visiting his parent.

Ed Rains' tonsorial parlors—first-class work done—call and be satisfied.

The tan yard resumed Monday after a week's stoppage for repairs.

It is a moral surety that all things have an end and it is a rare thing that secrecy never becomes publicly.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith, who have been in Tennessee for some time, arrived Tuesday on a visit to relatives here.

Mrs. C. E. Sutton, accompanied by her guests, the Misses Beeson, of Cincinnati, paid Manchester a visit Monday and Tuesday.

The Gang band and all was over Tuesday an interesting and most magnificent appearance in their grand entrance and street parade.

Aberdeen seems bound to hold up her end of the string on furnishing material for public gossip. See last Saturday's Examiner—and that is not all.

Dr. Clark, veterinary surgeon, versus Titus Howard Tuesday before his honor Squire Reasley. Verdict in favor of plaintiff, Sallee and Ellis were attorneys for plaintiff. Squire Waldron represented defendant.

Clarence Sallee won warm praise as an attorney of merit in the trial Tuesday, this being his first case in Aberdeen. It is safe to say it won't be the last, as everybody in attendance were enthusiastic in his favor as a lawyer and a courteous gentleman.

The Sibbald brothers took possession of the grocery establishment they bought of Garrison April 30th. All the patrons of the house will be glad to know that D. A. Ellis will continue with the new firm. Eck is one of the best and most courteous men in the business.

Kewin, the boot and shoe man, has just received the largest and handsomest stock of goods in that line ever opened in Aberdeen. Ladies' and gent's fine dongola shoes, work shoes, ladies' stylish slippers and children's shoes in an endless variety. In fact, everything pertaining to a first-class store. Prices are low down, quality of goods considered. Patronize home. Give him a call and you will receive courteous treatment and full value for every dollar expended.

Persons calling for same will please say advertised.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

GERMANTOWN.

Miss Bertha Ebricht is spending a few days in Mt. Olive.

Our Fair has extended the time to five days instead of four as formerly.

Tobacco plants, as a rule, are a failure this season in our community.

T. M. Dora is enlarging his store by building an addition to it. Powers & Brothers have the contract.

Rev. Ebricht and family start next week for Ohio to visit relatives. They expect to be gone some time.

The Frazee men here are thicker than bees round a clover field. The Doctor formerly resided here, and was and is very popular, and enjoys the confidence of all who know him.

The Good Templars' District Convention will be held here commencing May 7th and lasting three days. A large crowd will be present. Among the distinguished speakers expected are Colonel Demaree, Mrs. Winstead, Mrs. Moore and others.

A POINTER FOR MERCHANTS.

What Geo. P. Rowell & Co. Say of The Bulletin as an Advertising Medium.

George P. Rowell & Co., New York, the oldest and best informed and most reliable advertising agents in America, have just issued their hand book on "Newspaper Advertising" for 1889.

Of their "Best List of Local Newspapers" they say: "Every paper named is selected because either its daily or weekly edition is the best and most widely circulated or most influential, published at an important county seat or in a place having more than 5,000 inhabitants—the newspaper in each place that gives the advertiser the most for his money." The list for Kentucky is composed of the following papers: Bowling Green Times, Catlettsburg Democrat, Covington Commonwealth, Danville Advocate, Frankfort Herald, Henderson Journal, Hopkinsville Kentuckian, Lexington Transcript, Louisville Courier-Journal, Maysville Bulletin, Mt. Sterling Gazette, Newport Journal, Owensboro Messenger, Paducah News, Paris Kentuckian-Citizen, Richmond Register, Shelbyville Sentinel, Winchester Sun.

Railway News.

The gross earnings of the Pennsylvania Railroad for March were nearly $5,000,000.

It is said the C. & O.'s "Fast Flying Virginia" will be scheduled at forty-five miles per hour.

The worst point on the new division of the C. & O. is said to be at the Redd place a mile or so above South Ripley.

There were 1,935 accidents on the railroads in the United States during 1888, 804 collisions, 1,032 derailments and 90 other accidents. Defects in the road caused 189 derailments; defects of equipment caused 148, and neglect in operating caused 117. The killed numbered 607, of whom 483 were employees and 168 passengers.

The Time-Star takes this cheerful view as to the future prospects of the river trade: "River trade shows no falling off of consequence since the opening of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad. We remember that Commodore Wash. Henshell once said that it would be a blessing to the river interests to see a railroad line on the banks of the Ohio. A thrifty country would be more readily developed, better steamboats would be built, and a demand created for produce which would be a benefit instead of a detriment to the river. That was upward of ten years ago."

More "Suckers" Caught.

Frauds still flourish and swindlers continue to reap a rich harvest, especially down about Ripley. A special from there says: "A great many farmers in Brown County are being worked by a gang of sharpers who sell them inferior cloth and dress goods at fabulous prices. The modus operandi is as follows: Upon going to a farmer's house the sharpers show him samples of silks, linens, &c., which they offer at about one-third their real value. These goods they promise to deliver in a few days. When the farmer becomes interested they produce the other goods, which they carry with them, and for these they get several times their real value. The latter goods the farmer gets and pays for at once, and the sharper is seen no more. The other day one lady paid $19 for a $3 shawl, while a neighboring farmer paid $55 for three suit patterns worth about $20."

Personal.

Mrs. W. C. Payne and children are visiting relatives in Fleming County.

Miss Kate Kenney, of Cincinnati, is a guest of the family of Mr. T. J. Curley.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to clean the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50 cent and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

A New Department.

Miss Anna Frazar has added to her already complete stock a new department in the way of a select stock of Warner Rogers Manufacturing Co.'s ladies', children's and misses' fine shoes, which will be sold cheap for cash.

CARROLLTON claims to be the quietest and most peaceable place in the State. She has a population of 2,000 and last year the fines assessed before the Police Judge amounted to but $47. This is a good showing, if all the law-breakers were prosecuted as all law-breakers deserve to be.

BLUE RIBBON FAIR.

Complete List of Entries for the Stake Races to Be Trotted
Here August 21st to 24th Next

No Other Association in Kentucky
Will Have a Finer Lot of Young Trotters on the Track.

The next Maysville fair will be held August 21 to 24 inclusive.

It promises to be the blue ribbon fair of 1889. Mr. James W. Fitzgerald, Secretary of the company, is keeping up his end of the line, and the fact that the entries for the stakes to be trotted embrace a larger list of youngsters than ever before is due almost entirely to his efforts. If the other members of the company will do as well as the Secretary—and of course they can be relied on for that—the success of the coming meeting is a foregone conclusion.

With a track acknowledged to be one of the finest in the country, with grounds convenient of access by railway and river, the Maysville Fair Company has a bright future before it. Following is a complete list of the entries for the stakes to be trotted at the coming meeting:

LONDON PAPERS DISCUSSING THE MEETING AT SAN SEBASTIAN.

The British Public Anxious to Secure a Portion of the £3,000,000 Which Spain Expects to Get from the Sale of Crown Lands—Complications Threatened—Various Other Foreign News Notes.

LONDON, May 2.—The London papers devoted and are still devoting columns of space to the meeting of Queen Victoria with the queen regent of Spain at San Sebastian, an event the importance of which it is difficult to understand, but the journals estimate at its full value the instinct of snobbery in the majority of their readers, knowing how eagerly they scan every item relating to royalty.

The only thing at all remarkable in the incident is the fact that it is the first time an English monarch ever set foot on the soil of Spain. The Black Prince and Charles I were in that country when heirs apparent, but never repeated their visits after succeeding to the throne.

In relation to Spanish matters the confiding British public express the vain wish that they may get a portion of the £3,000,000 which the Spanish government expects to obtain from the sale of crown lands. The proclaimed intention is to devote the money to improving communications, principally railways, and establishing local banks for issuing small loans to rural proprietors after a scheme proposed by Salamanca.

It is not for a moment to be imagined that Spain will depart from her customary policy so far as to pay either interest or principal of the securities held so long by her despairing creditors in London. Complications threaten to arise by the church claiming some of the lands marked out for sale, and there are already rumors that the affair will be attended by the usual amount of jobbery and speculation.

Who'll Pay the Costs?

LONDON, May 2.—It is stated upon good authority that a number of the copartners of Mr. John Walter in the ownership of The Times, intend to bring suit in the chancery court to compel that gentleman to bear the expenses of The Times in its case against the Parnellites before Justice Hannen's commission out of his own personal fortune. The allegation upon which the action is based is that Mr. Walter was individually responsible for the publication of the "Parnellism and Crime" articles and the accompanying accusations against the Nationalist members, having printed them in spite of the remonstrances of his most cautious associates. If the action should be successful Mr. Walter will be all but ruined financially.

JOHN WALTER. Mr. Walter was individually responsible for the publication of the "Parnellism and Crime" articles and the accompanying accusations against the Nationalist members, having printed them in spite of the remonstrances of his most cautious associates. If the action should be successful Mr. Walter will be all but ruined financially.

The Austro-Russian War Scare.

LONDON, May 2.—The Standard's correspondent at Vienna reviews the languishing and almost moribund Austro-Russian war scare by his insistence that the designs of the czar upon Constantinople are of a most deliberate and determined character. The Stamboul government of Bulgaria stands almost entirely alone as an opponent to Russian influence in the Balkans, and this slight barrier, the correspondent asserts, is all that prevents Russia from immediate action. If this be true, and there is no reason to question the authority for the statement, the situation is indeed serious. In respect of ability to withstand Russian invasion Roumania is no better off than Bulgaria, and the possibility that both of those countries will be occupied by Russian troops seems not very remote.

William and the Working People.

BERLIN, May 2.—Emperor William Tuesday opened an exhibition of appliances for the prevention of accidents. Among those present were the empress, cabinet ministers and members of the bundesrath, reichstag and landtag. The emperor alluded to the services of his grandfather in improving the condition of the working classes, and said that he would strive to continue the attempts to attain a solution of social questions.

Catholic Congress.

VIENNA, May 2.—At the Catholic congress Tuesday Herr Cahensly, in announcing Dr. Windthorst's greetings said he was authorized to urge the congress to support the Raphael society in their efforts to dissuade people from emigrating to America and Australia.

Salisbury's Government Censured.

LONDON, May 2.—In the house of commons Tuesday evening a motion of Samuel Smith, liberal, censuring the government for fostering spirit-drinking in India, was carried by a vote of 113 to 103.

Memorial to Captain Murrell.

LONDON, May 2.—The lord mayor has consented to receive subscriptions to a public fund for a memorial to Capt. Murrell, of the steamship Missouri, which rescued the passengers and crew of the steamship Danmark.

It was a Dress Affair.

BERLIN, May 2.—Mr. Bates and Lieut. Parker were refused admission to the exhibition opened by the emperor Tuesday, because they wore frock coats instead of dress coats.

Malietoa Secures His Liberty.

BERLIN, May 2.—Malietoa, the deposed king of Samoa, has apologized, and Emperor William has decided that the ex-king may be liberated.

Foreign Notes.

Joseph Chamberlain and his wife are the guests of the queen at Windsor.

The death is announced at Vienna of Herr Kolisch, a well known chess player.

The delegates to the Samoan conference gave a banquet at the Kaiserhof Tuesday.

The Bavarian section of the Centre party in the German reichstag held a caucus at Munich Tuesday, at which it was unanimmously decided to oppose the workmen's pension bill.

The Duke of Edinburgh, who returned from the Mediterranean naval station sick of fever, is recovering.

M. Rochefort has received permission from France to proceed to Algeria to bury his son, who suicided there.

It is stated that owing to Catholic opposition the betrothal of the Prince of Naples to Princess Clementine, of Belgium, has been abandoned.

A PRECIOUS VOLUME.

Brown University Possesses a Book Which Money Can Not Buy.

WESTERLY, R. I., May 2.—A fine copy of the famous first edition of Eliot's Indian Bible has been in the possession of Brown University for more than a hundred years, and from an investigation that has been concluded it is decided that Roger Williams was the owner of this remarkable book.

But how the publication came into the possession of the college library cannot be ascertained. The work is extremely rare and readily brings $1,000 and upwards when offered for sale. Collectors of rare American books prize it as a monument of early American typography and as the first version of the Bible printed in the New World. The book is dedicated to the "High and Mighty Prince, King Charles II." Only twenty copies having this dedication were sent to England for presentation to the universities and to prominent men.

A careful examination of the work shows clearly that its original owner understood the Indian language. Verses of special interest are marked in both testaments, and there are frequent marginal notes in English, in short hand and in Indian. At the end are four pages, mostly in short hand, although some English and some Indian is used.

This handwriting is now believed, for various reasons, to be that of Roger Williams. It is known that he was proficient in short hand, having attracted the notice of the great lawyer, Coke, when a lad, by his skill in reporting sermons and speeches. He was the only man of his time, with the exception of Eliot, who could read and speak fluently the Indian tongue.

The discovery has greatly enhanced the value of the Bible in the eyes of Rhode Islanders. During the war of the revolution the book was one of 500 in the library which were removed to Wrentham, Mass., for safety, in the care of the Rev. William Williams, member of the first graduating class.
